W. PICARD (second from left), general manager of the Electric Management and Technical Services Department, accepts from Mayor William D. G. Skellie (second from right) a resolution calling for the City of Long Beach, Miss., a resolution calling for the GE department to serve as the city's agent in developing and implementing planning services for rehabilitation and redevelopment of the city. At left is Long Beach City Attorney P. J. Carrubba, and at right is Lucien M. Cox, Jr., legal counsel and manager of Mississippi Redevelopment Programs for GE-MTSD.

E. To Assist Long Beach in Redevelopment Program

City of Long Beach, Miss., has presented to the General Electric Management and Technical Services Department a resolution calling for the GE department to serve as the city's agent in developing and implementing a comprehensive plan for rehabilitation and redevelopment of the city.

The action followed acceptance by Mayor William D. G. Skellie and the Board of Aldermen on Nov. 18 of a written proposal by the General Electric Co. to accomplish such work. The acceptance was predicated upon subsequent execution of a formal contract for planning services, to be financed in part through Federal and State of Mississippi aid funds.

John R. Picard, general manager of the Management and Technical Services Department, accepted the resolution for General Electric. Also present were City Attorney P. J. Carrubba of Long Beach; Lucien M. Cox, Jr., manager of Mississippi Development Programs, William M. Barrentine, manager of Mississippi Programs, and Kenneth F. Tino, all of GE-MTSD.

Gex, who is also legal counsel for the GE department, said his organization would begin work immediately. Time has been appointed project manager he said.

Gex said the work would be done in five phases, beginning with basic studies that will include planning maps and analyses of Long Beach population, utilities, traffic and transportation, and land use. In a project phase to follow, objectives will be formulated and future land use and core area plans will be detailed. Next, he said, zoning and subdivision regulations will be updated, and a capital improvements plan developed in coordination with city officials.

As the fourth step, Gex said the GE-MTSD plan is a team will recommend to the city administration priorities which should be assigned to short and long-range projects. Gex added that the final step will be to aid the city in its applications and requests for matching funds from federal and state agencies to be used for community facilities, major thoroughfares, and utilities.

CIVIC PRIDE. . . STREET IDENTIFICATION

Bay St. Louis is a peninsula in that it is an area of land jutting out into water on three fronts. The Jourdan River on the north flows into the Bay of St. Louis to the west, and these waters meet the Mississippi Sound of the Gulf of Mexico on the southern boundary. City streets make a "coring quilt" design as they conform to the curves of the water and make allowances for inlets, tributaries and bays. It's a unique and most interestingly planned town.

There are street names to suggest the early history -- St. Charles, Esplanade, The Old Spanish Trail, St. John, St. George. There is also a historical marker explaining that Bay St. Louis was first called "Shieldsborough." There are a number of short lanes named for prominent first-families such as McDonald, Breath, Austin, etc. And what about the names for some of the newer sections? There is Iris, Lilac, Marigold, Daffodil Drives to name a few.

United States Highway 90 running from East to West splits Bay St. Louis just about down the center and is very well marked. Any stranger could easily find Highway 90. But what about locating an address on some of the lesser known streets? Could you direct him? You might tell him to turn off Highway 90 to the west for Carroll Ave., Hancock Avenue, Easterbrook, etc. Or to turn to the East for Blue Meadow Drive, Sounds simple? It isn't. Have you looked closely at street markers lately? Time and erosion, winds and rains, and storm sand-blastings have obscured the street names. They are dim and indistinct and in some cases completely obliterated. About the only way to be sure a stranger gets to his destination in Bay St. Louis is to take him there yourself. That is, if YOU don't get lost! Could some of our public funds be spent NOW to properly mark our city's streets? This paper believes it would be of benefit to the general public.

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors met in regular session December 1, with all members present except Supervisor Kellar who was ill.

Routine business took up most of the session with some time being taken in discussion of the stock law. Enforcement of the stock law was to have begun August 31, but with many fences being downed by hurricanes Camille, enforcement was postponed. Strict enforcement of the law is to begin immediately.

The Board of Supervisors is in no way responsible for enforcement of the law but is required to furnish an impoundment pen. Enforcement of the law is in the hands of the Coroner-Ranger Emile Piazza.

Ranger Piazza has been authorized by the board to build a pound 50 feet by 50 feet with two fences within it. The cost of the pound is not to be in excess of $700.00.

In speaking of enforcement of the law Sheriff Fred Currey said that persons finding loose stock on their property should pen up the stock and advise the Ranger at once and if the stock could not be penned a description of it should be given to Piazza.

After taking possession of the animal or animals the Ranger may impound the animal and the sheriff will advertise it for sale.

Currey further noted that any local, state or federal officer and any private citizen may hold an animal running loose in violation of the law.

Ranger Piazza said the pound would be built at the corner of St. Charles Street and Central Avenue. Holding areas in various parts of the county might be built later should the need arise.

No action was taken by the board as to adjustments on the 1969 tax rolls for property destroyed or damaged by the hurricane. However, the board will give normal consideration to petitions filed by individuals who seek adjustments as provided for by Section 9815 of the Mississippi Law.

Under the above statute only that period of time remaining in the 1969 tax year would be subject to adjustment. Also any insurance claims paid to the property owner would offset against the amount of loss claimed on taxable property.

The Board accepted the resignation of Justice of the Peace A. F. Selph, District 4, and appointed Earl E. (Buck) Lader, Jr., to serve until election for the post could be held. Lader, who has been a deputy sheriff for 3 years serving under two sheriffs was sworn in Monday by Circuit Clerk Lamar Otis. Lader is now the youngest Justice of the Peace in Mississippi both in age and seniority.

An election to elect a Justice of the Peace for District 4, has been called by the board for January 24, 1970.

Upon the recommendation of County Agent John W. Smith the board hired Wm. O. Goodwin of Newton County as assistant county agent to take up his duties here January 1, 1970.

54 Homes To Be Moved In Pass

Parnell McKay, chief of the Civil Defense in Pass Christian, reports a total of 54 houses in the streets of Pass Christian are to be moved by the U.S. Corps of Engineers. Three of this number were demolished. In his report to the Board of Aldermen McKay said he was still working on an incomplete official list of Camille victims both dead and missing, and added: "We have verified 88 dead and four missing." McKay also made a recommendation to the board that We Care Funds be used to help those not sufficiently helped by the Red Cross.

Property Loss Reported

City Assessor George Smith asks that persons who report the loss to his office a $1.00 fee. Workers are now making 1970 land roll.

destroyed dwellings in his count. Additions are as follows: East Ansley Estates, 32; Herron Bay Estates, 10 and Belle Isles 3. The count in Beat Five is now complete with 50 more demolished dwellings counted. This brings the total for Beat Five to 1673.

City Authorities Seek Hotel Holdup Suspect

Hancock County authorities are looking for a suspect in a robbery who walked into St. Louis, Ramada Inn, Sunday morning and walked out with $1,400 for all his floor for five minutes while he made his escape.

A total sum of $1400 was taken, however, all of that amount was in non-negotiable checks except for $1.46.

Inn-keeper, Bill Hanzey, said the man stood about six feet tall, weighed about 180 pounds, with shaggy, dyed blonde hair. He wore a black leather jacket and blue plaid slacks.

Sheriff Fred Currey said local officers are working with New Orleans authorities on the possible connection between the Bay St. Louis robbery and one that took place in New Orleans later Sunday. Description of the robbers were said to be similar.

Telephone Service Comparison Made

Presley, newly appointed Public Relations Officer of the Gulf Coast Area Central Bell Telephone Company today released findings a break-down on telephone service as of October 31, 1969, and in comparison to use in coastal area prior to Hurricane Camille.

numbered 32,998 or a loss of 1,573 listings. In Pass Christian with code 482 there were 3,979 phones; as of October 31 phone service had decreased to 2,578 or a loss of 401 phones.

In Bay St. Louis under code 688 and 467 there were 8,082 phones as compared with 7,156 on October 31, or a loss of 821 phones. The standard area of North Pass Christian had 483 phones prior to Camille; as of October 31, there were 441 phones, or a loss of 42 phones in service.

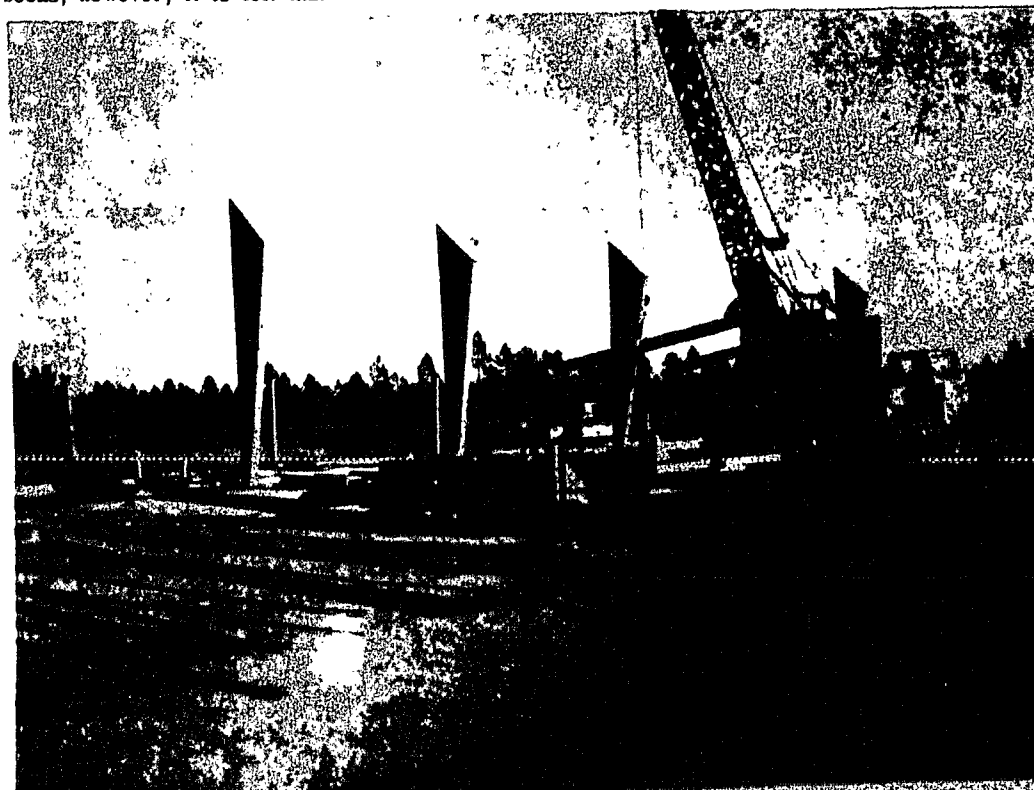

Pearlington became the only community to increase phone service following Camille with a gain of three phones and a total number as of October 31 of 447 phones in service.

In making an analysis, Mr. Presley said except in isolated cases all service orders have been filled. New services and improvements to the phone company planned by the phone company and it is felt that when repairs and reconstructions are completed the coast population will not only return to normal, but will actually increase.

Christmas Lighting Contest

Mrs. C. R. Boyer who serves as chairman for the Christmas Decorations Contest sponsored by the Bay Waveland Garden Club urges cooperation of all persons in this area who can possibly obtain materials to decorate their homes and places of business. Mrs. Boyer said: "We realize that many people have lost their materials used for Christmas decorations, but we feel that it will be a morale builder to make Christmas lighting and decorating attempts."

Last year awards were given for best Christmas decorations in both residential and business areas. Mrs. Boyer said last year's winners will not be eligible to enter this season's contest, however, the Garden Club hopes they will continue to lend their talents toward the program. Details covering the contest will be announced next week, according to Mrs. Boyer.

STRUCTURAL STEELWORK for airport terminal building at Gulfport Airport is hoisted into place on site, steel was originally in position and August but Hurricane Camille came along and destroyed original structure work. New metal had to be fabricated and arrived on site late last month. Building should be completed and in use early in 1970. Structure is being erected by Terry Feeney, Inc. of Waveland. Italian Society Elects Officers Charles Sciana was elected president of the Italian Society of the Immaculate Conception at the November meeting.

Other named to office were Sylvester Benigno, vice president; Rodney Sandoz, secretary; Sam Compagna, treasurer; Frank Chiffole, grand marshal; and Tony Morroale, Joe Cacioppo and Walter Ross, trustees.

Plans were made to celebrate the feast of the Immaculate Conception with a dinner and entertainment at 8 p.m., Saturday, December 6, at the Knights of Columbus Home.

Waveland Baptist Church To Present Billy Graham Film

"I'M TALKING ABOUT A JESUS WHO BELONGS TO ASIA" will be shown at First Baptist Church, Waveland on December 5, at 7:00 p.m. Everyone is invited to experience this astonishing display of faith, as contemporary as tomorrow morning's headlines. "I'M TALKING ABOUT A JESUS WHO BELONGS TO ASIA" is the latest film production from World Wide Pictures. This time, the documentary cameras have followed Mr. Graham and his Team to elusive, vibrant Japan. Captured in glorious color, the tapestry of backgrounds provides a continuous contrast between the romantic tradition of the Orient as seen on travel posters, and the bustling, almost impossible-to-describe paradox of modern Tokyo.

For ten eventful days, the Graham Tokyo Crusade permeated the world's largest city. In a religious sense, Japan is primarily a Buddhist country, and Christians are an extreme minority. They make up less than one half of one percent of the total population. The overwhelming response to the Tokyo Crusade serves to compound the miracle, as total attendance went well over the 200,000 mark! Prior to Mr. Graham's visit, there were only 16,000 Christians in all of Tokyo. This International Crusade was probably the largest ecumenical Christian effort in Japanese history; Japanese church leaders hailed it as a significant turning point in national church life.

The film features a 1,500 voice choir, under the direction of Cliff Barrows, singing familiar hymns in Japanese; and a personal word of witness from English Pop star Cliff Richard and the American League's Bobby Richardson, as well as an address by the famous evangelist.

Pass Christian's Mayor Attending Congress Of Cities

Mayor and Mrs. J.J. Whitman of Pass Christian will be among a large delegation of Mississippi Municipal officials attending the 46th annual Congress of Cities this week in San Diego, California. Heading the Mississippi delegation is Mayor Pat Dunne of Greenville, president of the Mississippi Municipal Association.

Housing and Urban Renewal Secretary George Romney and Mayor John Lindsay of New York will head the roster of speakers. Sponsored by the National League of Cities, the convention is expected to draw 3,000 mayors, city councilmen, and other municipal officials to San Diego's Community Concourse Convention Center for a discussion of "Cities in the '70s." Municipal delegates to the Congress of Cities also will hammer out the cities' urban affairs "platform," known as the National Municipal Policy, for 1970. They will do this in a series of committee meetings and in the annual general business session.

*LIGHT makes a difference

Combination of floodlighted cut-out figures in the foreground, lighted shrubbery, plus a stylized Christmas tree with twinkling lights produce a colorful and eye-catching pattern of shadows and motion for easy-to-make holiday display.

The holiday season is a perfect time for decorating your home with light, both indoors and out.

First, let's decorate the tree. The lights should be put on before any other decorations so that the ornaments will be lighted most effectively and will turn help on the simple rule of determining how many lights are needed to decorate the tree by its size. Then by three for a seven-foot high tree, a seven-foot high tree would need 21 lights. As many as a wreath on the front door, back it with a sheet of silver or red foil and watch it sparkle when you turn on a single floodlight.

For more dramatic effects you can use outdoor string sets to accent your home's architectural beauty or highlight the trim lines. Or you can use floodlights to "wash" your entire house with soft light. In addition to white, floodlights are available in blue, green, amber, red, yellow, blue-white and pink colors. Be sure to use the same color floodlight as the color you're trying to intensify. Otherwise the results could be unattractive.

If you'd like to try something different from the more common lighting of fir trees and shrubs, string transparent bulbs in the bare deciduous trees. It produces a pleasant, sparkling glow. And you can add a twinkling effect too. But whatever you do, keep it simple. The best decorated exterior is usually those based on one easily recognizable theme.

Local Boy Receives Wheelchair As Gift

Hannas Masonic Temple of Hernando, Miss., came to the rescue of the Playburn Ladner family of Kila who lost all their possessions during Camille, including the wheelchair that only Playburn, Jr. had been allowed to use for some time. A local temple member, Robert Ladner, contacted the Hannas members and told them of the Ladner's situation. He in turn was requested to check the local prices for the replacement value of the wheelchair. Two days after contacting the temple, the local media-temple received a check and the purchase was made.

Council Names Insurance Coverage Reduced?

Waveland Man

Professional engineer, Ed "Tom" Thompson of Waveland, has been named by the Governor's Emergency Council to represent regional uniform code enforcement in Waveland, Harrison, and Jackson counties.

Thompson will direct operations of a staff of building inspectors, structural analysts, and engineers who will work on municipal and county code enforcement in the Camille area.

Thompson regional enforcement codes were adopted by county and municipal officials with the aim to reduce risk of property damage in

The Hancock County School Board recently voted that insurance coverage for school buildings and equipment be reduced to 40% of the coverage the system had prior to Hurricane Camille.

A letter outlining this coverage reduction was mailed to the school board by Hancock Insurance Agency, agent of record, who stated that all the local agencies have only been able to renew only 40% of the total schedule.

The School Board authorized Walter James Phillips, attorney for the board, to send a letter to the Governor's Emergency Council and the state insurance commissioner to see if anything can be done about this reduction in rates.

STATION OPENS
Bob's Standard Service Station has opened on U.S. Highway 90, and Turner Road, Bay St. Louis. The new station is operated by H.A. (Bob) Torgerson whose other station on Coleman Avenue was heavily damaged by Hurricane Camille.

Methodist Conference At Waveland

Rev. Seth Granberry, Gulfport, will preside at the quarterly conference of the Waveland and Clermont Harbor Methodist Churches Sunday morning beginning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Granberry is Superintendent, Seashore District, Mississippi Methodist Conference.

The Superintendent will also deliver the sermon for the regular services at the Waveland Church Sunday morning which will begin at 10 o'clock.

Until demolished by the hurricane Mr. Granberry lived in the District Parsonage at Long Beach. Presently plans for a new District Parsonage are incomplete.

The home of the Rev. Harold Ryker in the Bluff Back Bay area was also destroyed by the storm. He is the pastor for both the Waveland and Clermont Harbor Methodist churches.

Board Raises Pay

With all members present for the regular meeting Tuesday night the Waveland Town Board voted to increase the hourly wage rate for laborers employed by the city to $1.75 per hour.

For trailer parks the board voted to supply such parks with only one central meter for gas and one central meter for water. Such meters to be installed at the park's property line. The operator would be responsible for all gas and water metered and would also be his responsibility to make connections from each meter to the trailers using the facility.

J. Ruble Griffin, Bay St. Louis, President of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce appeared before the board and gave a summary of the Chamber's plans for the future.

The Financial Statement as of November 30, was read and approved.

Garden Talk

BY JEANNE

Planting will be good from now to early spring as the moisture in the soil is plentiful. Also most plants are dormant at this time of year, and should be.

Before beginning to plant have your soil tested. Plants are like people, and need a proper diet. It is also wise to spade your garden in the fall, first spreading a good thick layer of compost (or well-rotted manure, leaves or peat moss). The object is to break up the soil well; deepen it and mix the compost evenly through it to help give your plants, strong root system and a proper diet as it works into the soil.

The type of home you have controls the planting placed before it. Do not try to plant like your neighbor. Some plants look pretty by one home, but ugly by another. Why? The type of home and shape.

Plant permanent evergreen for foundation shrubs such as Cleyra, magnolia, yews, boxwoods, etc. Plant far enough apart to allow full development. While plants or young use small bedding plants in between for filling in. You might enjoy this and do it year after year.

For hedging and private fences use; abelia, photinia and even inexpensive wax leaf ligustrum. Also it is very attractive to use shrubs such as, forsythia, camellia, sasanqua, and pyracantha.

For fast growing shade trees you can try the silver maple. A very fast growing, soft wooded tree, reaching a height of 50 to 60 feet. Leaves are deeply cut and very attractive, being a silvery white underneath.

Also fast growing is the Weeping Willow. The common weeping willow make a large lacy tree with long branches reaching to the ground. Good for planting near water or as a planting accent alone or in a group of two or three in a moist location. Ultimate height 40 feet.

Another good shade tree is the Tulip-tree one of the loveliest of our native trees is a tall growing tree, of shapely habit. It has large irregular leaves that make it ideal for quick shade. The tulip tree bears numerous tulip-like flowers in the spring. The blossoms are yellow, marked at inside of base with an orange color.

What about fruit trees? We do not want to leave them out. How nice to be able to step out, pull off a piece of fresh fruit, when you like.

Gun Control Act Revision Eases Records

It no longer is necessary for dealers to keep records of certain ammunition sales, the Internal Revenue Service said today.

Newly enacted legislation eliminates the need for dealers to keep record of sales of shotgun ammunition, ammunition suitable only for use in rifles, and component parts of these types of ammunition. Purchases of ammunition interchangeable between rifles and handguns, such as .22 caliber rimfire ammunition, continue to be subject to the record-keeping requirements. Previously, the Gun Control Act of 1968 required records for all ammunition sales. Mr. Joseph F. Kelly, Chief, Special Investigator, Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division, stressed that neither aspect of the Act was changed by the legislation.

Persons engaged in selling ammunition still are required to be licensed under the Act.
Anyone under 21 years of age cannot purchase handgun ammunition. However, individuals at least 18 can buy rifle and shotgun ammunition. Dealers must still require purchasers to identify themselves if there is doubt about their age.

Felons, persons under indultment for felony, fugitives from justice, unlawful users of drugs, mental incompetents, and persons under 18 continue to be prohibited from purchasing ammunition of any type.

The change in the law affects only shotgun and rifle ammunition and their component parts. Dealers still are required to keep records on the sales of other ammunition, specifying the type and quantity of ammunition and identifying the buyer.

Camille Victims Aided By Large Red Cross Check

Alfred F. Tillman, a first sergeant who formerly lived in Waveland and was hard hit by hurricane Camille, has received a check from the Red Cross in the amount of $2,100, to cover some of the families immediate needs.

The presentation was made by Mark L. Dietz, field director at McClellan, Alabama where Tillman is presently stationed.

Upon accepting the check Sgt. Tillman said, "We lost everything, everything it took us 22 years to build. All together our loss totaled about $20,000."

In praising the efforts of the Red Cross, the Sergeant said, "they did a beautiful job."
He stated that he first contacted the Red Cross on September 2. He also stated that the money is "really going to help".

Sgt. Tillman has returned from a tour of duty in Vietnam.
He and his wife have two chil-

Louie Awards To Be Presented Saturday

Contending for the Little Theater's coveted Louie awards on Saturday night, December 6th, will be thirty-six of its outstanding actors, actresses, and technical staff. Six glowing Louies will be presented at the annual event, which will take place at the theater after a preliminary cocktail party in the cafeteria at St. Augustine's Seminary.

As in preceding years, awards will be given to the best actor, best actress, best supporting actress, best supporting actor, and best director of the 1969 season. In addition, this year for the first time a Louie will also be presented to the best technical director.

Plays to be judged this season are A STREET CAR NAMED DESIRE, directed by Burt Barrett; THE ODD COUPLE, directed by Mary Carter; THE MUSIC MAN, directed by Olive McKenna; and ENTER LAUGH-ING, directed by Burt Barrett and Cal Smith. Hurricane Camille forced the cancellation of a fifth play, GENERATION.

Vying for the award of leading actor are Pete Chapman for
"A Streetcar Named Desire",
BURT BARRETT and LLOYD
WILSON for "The Odd Couple", BUNK GARDNER for the
"Music Man", and TERRY MALONE for "Enter Laughing".

Oddly enough, there were only two leading roles for actresses in this season's play.
The choice will lie between DENNIS SEUZENEAU in a "Streetcar Named Desire" and ROSEANN FORD in "The Music Man".

Competing for the best supporting actor award are JACK CORDY, FLOYD WILTZ, JOHN
SCAFIDE, HAROLD POWELL,
NORRIS SUMRALL, JOE BAR-
BO, VICTOR FRANKIEWICZ,
ED CRAIG, JOHN STERN, ED
MARTIN, RICKY MARTIN and ROBERT TAYLOR.

Contending for the Louie given to the best supporting actress are INEZ FAYRE, MARY EVELYN WALLACE, NANNIE
NETTE MADDEN, BETTY LOU
NAY, SHARON MCKENNA, OLIVE MCKENNA, RUTH
FURR, and FRANCES FRAN-KIEWICZ.

College Costs May Rise Beyond Students Reach

A Laurel Physician, Dr. James C. Waites, says Mississippi is in danger of pricing the cost of a college education out of the reach of many young people.

Dr. Waites, president of the Mer-Academy Council, an organization of alumni representing all of Mississippi's state-supported institutions of higher learning, said budgetary support for colleges and universities is placing a growing financial burden on Mississippi students and their parents.

"Last year state-supported colleges and universities had to raise fees as much as $15 a year to maintain the quality of their programs because the legislature failed to appropriate the funds they needed. As a result, Mississippi students now pay the highest tuition in the Southeast. While students in Arkansas pay $250 a year in fees and students in Tennessee pay $270, Mississippi students pay as much as $300 a year in fees," Dr. Waites said.

Dr. Waites said the Mer-Academy Council, which represents the 82,000 alumni of eight state-supported colleges and universities, is "very concerned" about rising student costs at state institutions of higher learning.

"Parents and students are paying 50 percent of the cost of attending state colleges and universities in Mississippi, and this is beginning to be more than many families can afford. In fact, last year 51 percent of the students attending state colleges and universities in Mississippi paid more than $300 a year in tuition and fees," he said.

Dr. Waites said Mississippi has made great strides in increasing support of higher education, but that the state continues to fall behind the rate of support given schools in surrounding states. "Mississippi has increased its support of colleges and universities nearly 216 percent in the last decade, but during the same period the average increase in the Southeast was 226 percent. We just are not keeping pace with the same," he said.

"College and university residents are requesting a legislative appropriation for the year of $35.2 million, an increase of about $9.5 million in operating funds. The heads of these institutions have stated that without a full appropriation this year either the quality of programs will suffer, or fees will again have to be raised. The colleges and universities, and the young people they train, are the greatest resource we have in our efforts toward economic growth and development. We simply cannot afford to price the cost of a college education out of the reach of any of our young people," he said.

Businessman Appointed To State Welfare Board

Louis A. Fayard, Ocean Springs businessman and civic leader, has been appointed to the State Board of Public Welfare, according to an announcement today by Commissioner Arthur Winstead of the State Department of Public Welfare.

As one of five members, one from each of the congressional districts, he will assume responsibility in such matters as adopting policies, plans and procedures for the proper functioning of the welfare department. The appointments are made by the governor.

Both interested in and understanding the tremendous job being done by the Department of Public Welfare, I am pleased to have been asked by the governor to serve," he said.

Fayard has been in building and land development in Biloxi and Ocean Springs for the past 25 years, being presently Secretary-Treasurer of both Mississippi Development Co., and Suburban Utilities, Inc.

A native of Biloxi, he is a member of the First Methodist Church of Biloxi, the Jackson County Planning Commission, and serves on the Mississippi Council for the Development of Marine Resources.

Posthumous Award Presented To U.S.M.C. Hero's Mother

Mrs. Pilet expressed a desire for a very quiet and personal presentation of the Vietnamese medals and received them together with her husband, Col. Nunez C. Pilet, in the privacy of their home with only Marine personnel in attendance. At some time not yet disclosed the Pilets will display the medals and citations for interested friends and relatives.

MRS. NUNEZ C. PILET

Coast Tourist Club Membership Down

Mrs. Nunez C. Pilet, hostess of the Gulf Coast Area Tourist Club, revealed confidential data showing that members of that organization have arrived in previous years from 25 various states, 2 Canadian provinces, Mexico, England and Germany. The many attractions available along the Mississippi Gulf Coast, prior to Hurricane Camille, drew the group met in the West Side Community House. Through the Club building, records, equipment and furniture were destroyed, the 1969-70 season opened with a membership of about 60 persons—fraction of previous membership—using the facilities of the recreational building of St. Peter-by-the-Sea on West Beach Blvd. of Gulfport. It was reported that many former club members were unable to find suitable places along the coast in which to stay and had scattered into Texas, Alabama and Florida. Club members say they have heard from their friends who expect to return to Mississippi when storm repairs have been made and conditions are more favorable.

The Gulfport Chamber of Commerce, a sponsoring organization for the Tourist Club, expressed regrets and inability to make a contribution this season. Last year the C. of C. contributed about two thousand dollars. Other interested civic organizations have also been hard-hit and are unable to offer the usual hospitality. Carnival costumes were lost and no plans for the annual Carnival ball are being made.

Tourist Club members are now responding to the needs of the area and have "written home" for clothing and supplies that have "come through by the hundreds of pounds". One tourist club couple arrived with their station wagon loaded with useful materials donated by the people of their community. Individual club members who would normally be "sitting in the sun" or "out in a boat" are busy painting walls and assisting in restoring furniture of friends whom they have met along the Gulf Coast area. When asked why they return year after year to Mississippi, the answer varies with club members. Some of the answers are: The climate, the medical and dental service, the churches, clubs, fraternal orders—the places of interest to visit. Good fishing spots. But all agree the strongest attraction is "People of the Gulf Coast area are warm, friendly and generous—sometimes obliging almost to the point of embarrassment. When they say 'Y'all come back now' they mean it. Their soft, gentle drawl quickly rubs off on a Northerner."

WWI BARRACKS MEETING
Hancock County Barracks #2137, Veterans of World War I, will hold its Annual Meeting and Election of Officers this evening, Thursday, December 4th at 7 o'clock p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Main Street. State Commander Newton Hewes, of Gulfport, will be present to install the newly elected officers. Spaghetti and meat balls will be served.

MISSISSIPPI

LARGEST REFINERY UNIT—The largest single unit ever erected in oil refinery construction—a 480-ton vessel used as part of the isocacking reactor—was set in place at the new Standard Oil Refinery at Pascagoula in late March, 1963. Its gross weight in shipment was 1.3 million pounds, and it was shipped on two specially built railroad cars. The vessel is 120 feet tall and about 15 feet wide.—Released by the Mississippi Economic Council.

Joe B. (Billy) Burrow, Jr., Manager

By L. S. (Doc) Elliott

No complaint about the weather over the Thanksgiving days. It was perfect for hunting and fishing. Just enough to make fish strike game move about. Haven't too many reports as to how hunters fared.

Won't be many days before duck season opens in Mississippi. In Louisiana the sea has already opened. There not been many ducks seen Jordan River, even pouls as yet.

As usual the first two weeks hunting ducks is pretty good after a little shooting the seem to go farther south the marshes. Don't know whether Camille had anything to do with it or not but very marshes have been noted.

On the fishing side speckles has been caught, and yours caught some nice spec on the shad rig up Jordan or. Trolling for speckles pretty good also.

Frank Stockman out at the site said he doesn't like to go much but enjoys soft ball. He was a member of Frank Trapani's when it was going full.

Harlan Watkins, like a lot others, is working on his se. Loves to hunt and fish, ever.

Joe Adams from Little Rock, Arkansas was down this way lately. Joe does quite a bit fishing and hunting.

Raymond and Alma Matulich to fish. Suffering from the effects of Camille they haven't to go right now, they said.

Paul B. Lee from Morgan and with the U.S. Engineers he is missing his fishing at the. Paul has been helping his other-in-law, Holden Barre, a little longer. Paul the here is getting better the minute.

Geo Dore has been down in New York. Doesn't fish does his share of golf, eat those golf is, George.

While in Jackson was a pleasure to see Whitey Nelson and wife again. Margie is Pop's zeneau's daughter. They regards back home.

Kirkwood Grantham lives in Jackson, but works at the Bay. Is connected with Sheppard as. "Southeast" as he is affectionately called loves his ing and has a nice boat ch he uses when not work- Looking forward to that S. Buddy.

William Alley, Sr., was unfortunate to fall over board and his hearing aid and glasses fortunate to find them with aid of a boat and long handle net. Better tie them on next time you go fishing Bill.

Mrs. Betty Suber and Mrs. Cristy usually get their fish when they go after. It's their favorite pas- they claimed.

Mr. Carey, Jr., and son, Mrs. Carey, Jr., and son, they two-day trip to Holly over the Thanksgiving days. Didn't stay long to hear what they got.

Mr. Damien Mecler on the to Jackson. Damien is too to go fishing, he said. He son of our local fisher- Al Mecler.

Listen to the old guys. They know something about fishing you don't.

A Louisiana Fisherman's greeting:
"Hiyamae"
"Lobuddy"

"Cannabeet"
"Goddago"
"Tubad"
"Seeyaroun"
"Yehakideery"
"Gulak"

Think the above is rather cute. Will start it off for you "How you Ma?" "Hello Buddy," etc.

Do you fishers know that a Repala or a Bolebait is ideal for catching both speckles and green trout while trolling I use one all the time. Try it.

Too much drinking in a boat is like drinking while driving. Anything can happen. Wait until you get home for that refreshment.

Arnold Palmer won the $100,000 Golf Tournament over the weekend after being in a slump for quite a while. You just can't keep a good man down.

Those boat speeders should learn to respect others that are fishing. They can at least get on the other side of the river or bayou at slow boat. It would help a lot.

We seldom hear of shoe players. It is an interesting game of skill. When our families get-together there is horseshoes with us. Hint to young can play the game. Horseshoes will make a fine Christmas present. They furnish a lot of fun the year round in the back yard.

Shrimp seem to be plentiful in the fish markets but are scarce in local waters. No matter how old a shrimp is, fish still love 'em.

Using a shag rig pays off when a small piece of shrimp is on each hook. Most any kind of fish can be caught on them.

Now is the time to locate deep holes and new bars in waters out front with unusual low tides. Mark down where they are. It will help later when fishing and floundering later.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK

Joe Schmitt doesn't claim to be a fisherman or hunter but enjoys playing golf and poker. Joe is pretty good at both sports.

Traveled all the way to Jackson and back. Didn't see a dove. Something must be wrong. Probably haven't migrated this way yet.

There are all kinds of sports. We think the Episcopal "Angels" are one kind. Those coming down from Columbus, Greenville and Meridian to help rebuild our local church and school are doing a swell job. Both boys and girls have made several trips to the Gulf Coast since hurricane Camille. They don't have wings but helping hands.

Charter Presented To B-W Auxilliary

Members and sponsors of the Bay-Waveland Junior Auxiliary were honored guests at a luncheon held in Pascagoula, Mississippi, on November 20, 1969, at the La Porte Inn. The Pascagoula-Moss Point Junior Auxiliary hosted the affair.

The Bay-Waveland Junior Auxiliary was officially accepted as an active chapter of the National Association of Junior Auxiliaries in May, 1969. The purpose of the luncheon was to officially present a charter to the new chapter.

Mrs. Bob C. Moore, President, Pascagoula-Moss Point Junior Auxiliary, presided, and her chapter provided entertainment in the form of a puppet show depicting the Bay-Waveland Chapter members after Hurricane Camille.

This was followed by remarks by Mrs. Travis Holsley, President, and Mrs. Henry Maggio, Charter President of the Bay-Waveland Junior Auxiliary. A special thank you entitled "Way Down in the Gulf" was given by Mrs. W. H. Door-ing.

Mrs. Jack C. Francis, President of the National Association of Junior Auxiliaries, from Amory, Mississippi, gave a very inspiring talk "The Impossible Dream" and presented Mrs. Holsley with the Charter. Special guests were Mrs. Martha Wise, Executive Secretary, Warren, Arkansas, N. A. J. A. Admissions Committee members Mrs. Robert Gam-mill, Camden, Arkansas; Mrs. Robert W. Brumfield, McComb, Mississippi; and Mrs. Frank K. Hammond, Jr., Moss Point, Mississippi; Mrs. David King, Region IV Director, Hattiesburg, Mississippi; and Crown-let Editor, Mrs. Garrett Williams, Moss Point, Mississippi.

Members of the Bay-Waveland Junior Auxiliary and their sponsors, Mrs. Lucile Cox, Mrs. Victor Leveau, Mrs. E. C. Samuel, and Mrs. Sam Whit-field, worked for two years and eight months in the Bay-Waveland communities in order to become an active chapter of this worthwhile organization. It is their hope and dream to once again become very active so they may provide social, economic, educational, civic, and cultural projects and render service of a humanitarian nature to the Bay-Waveland area.
